

BHA EDUCATION ADVOCACY CALL TO ACTION

- Spread the word among your “circles of influence” about the effort to provide access to high-quality schools to all the families living in Miami’s Urban Core
- Do your research – Find out more about the educational resources/assets available in your community
- Schedule site visits to local educational institutions to learn more about them
- Submit ideas for improving education to your elected officials
- Hold officials accountable for addressing your needs, concerns, and/or ideas
- Support the institutions and/or people who support you and your family
- Stay active, informed, and engaged – “History is made by those who show up and do something.”
- Submit your ideas for improving education in Miami’s Urban Core to @BHAMiami
